

BARNARD

ZINE LIBRARY

NEWSLETTER

NOVEMBER '23

MUCH ADO ABOUT
STUFFING

Follow us on

Instagram

@barnardzinelibrary

Dear You-

Dear You

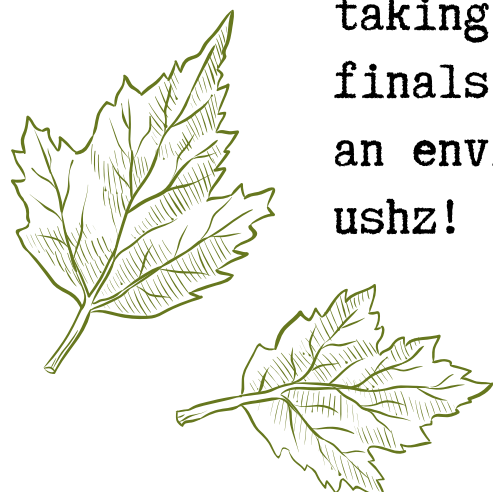

A friend in Milwaukee texted me a photo of their cat in their snowy backyard. A few nights ago, I saw my first commercial of the year for the Christian holiday.

We're not even at Fall Break, and it feels like the winter break is almost upon us. Before we call Fall '23 quits, we're making plans for a visit from zine icon Mimi Thi Nguyen, who will be visiting NYC to participate in the opening of a big zine exhibit at Brooklyn Museum.

There aren't a lot of stars in such an anti-fame medium as zines, but Mimi is pretty special, and I'm psyched for the students to meet her.

Zine staff are otherwise busy little bees, teaching classes, taking classes, studying for AI finals, hating AI because it's an environmental disaster. The ushz!

Jenna

On Friday, December 1st, we are hosting a journal/diary/planner show and tell, led by Alekhya Maram BC '25 and Grace Li BC '24.

We will discuss daily comics, tour diaries, dated entries, and other related zine content.

People will share their favorite ways of keeping track of their lives, and we'll end with folks setting up and decorating free notebooks provided to registrants.

Zine library sessions taught in October

Professor Greene's Intro to Psychology

Two sections of Professor Ula's Queer Times seminar

Two sections of Professor Cobos's Spanish II (led by Nayla Delgado BC '24)

Three sections of students at the Brooklyn Emerging Leaders Academy (led by Claudia Acosta)

Professor Mitra's Performing Publics seminar

Instagram

Highlight

From Instagram: The zine library is now hosting open office hours on Fridays! Come to Milstein 203 (Jenna Freedman's office) between 11 and 2 to chat with a zine library staffer. Whether you have specific questions about zines (e.g. formatting zines, using zines for research/scholarship, zine history, etc.), or you just want someone to bounce ideas off of, we're here to help!

(Click to open post!)

5

"We've got a zine for that! "

Risograph zines

Some of top subject
headings
used to describe the zines are

Offset printing

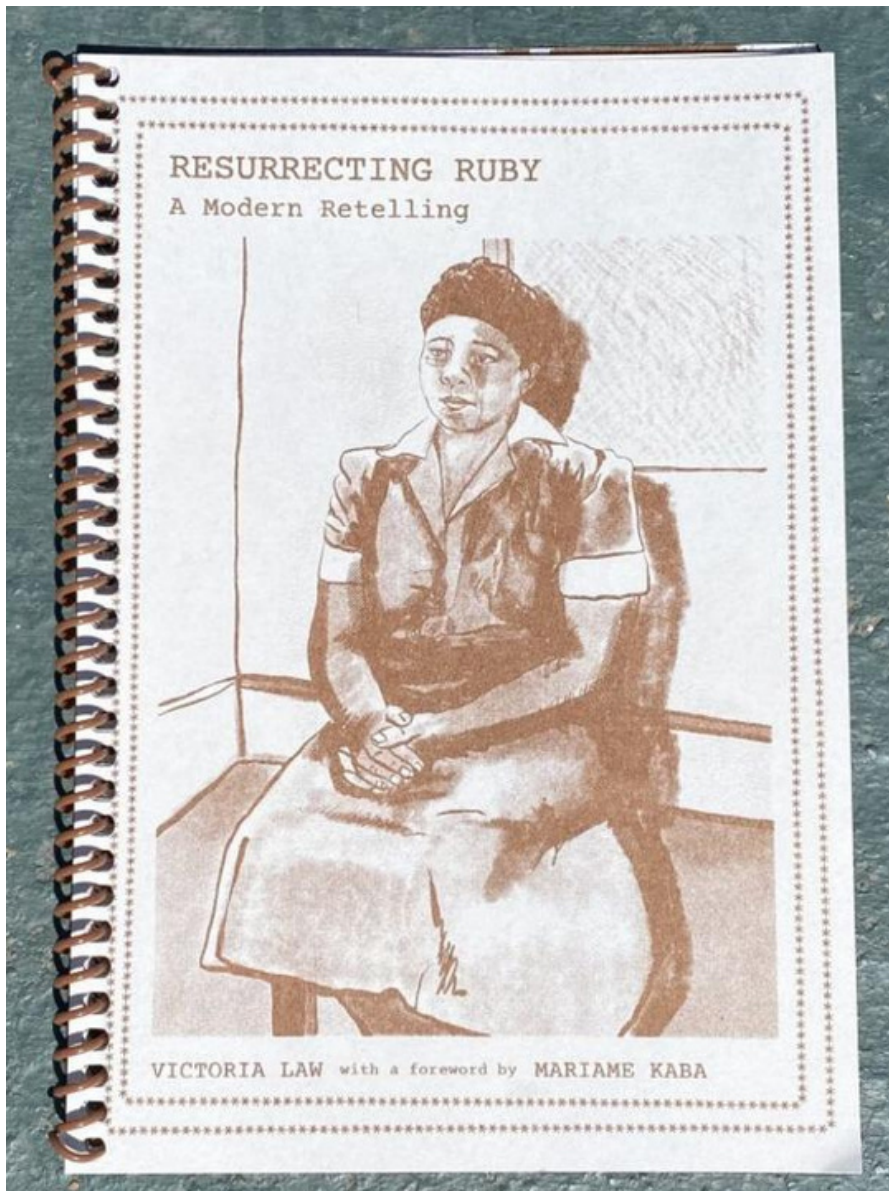

African Americans

COVID I9 (Disease)

Gender

nonconformity.

Quality of work
life

Click here to learn more about our risography zines!

New-to-Us

Library of Congress

Subject Headings

- Afrofuturism
- Art, Black
- Artists, Black
- Black Art Library
- Celiac disease
- Coffee drinks
- College student orientation
- Colombia
- Cooking
- Ecuador
- Erasure poetry
- Estranged families
- Festivals
- Ghanaian Americans
- Homophobia
- Human comfort
- Instagram (Firm)
- Kitchen utensils
- Kitchens
- Labor disputes
- Mental health counseling
- New School University
- Organic farming
- Peru
- Plant morphology
- Play
- Ritual
- San Francisco Bay Area (Calif.)
- Seventh Day Adventists
- Small libraries
- Soccer
- Universities and colleges--Admission
- Walton, Asmaa
- Work
- Yosemite National Park (Calif.)

Zine Review

7

Antifa for Kids! Fun Coloring Book

Antifa For Kids!

Fun
Coloring Book

Sasaki Family Zines

“Antifa for Kids! Fun
Coloring Book” is a political zine aimed at children. This zine was made using a risograph printer and is a humorous introduction to anti-policing in an easily-digestible medium.

In CLIO - Alex

What's bringing the
zine library staff joy
this month?

* * *

going home - Alex
zine library student workers - Jenna
rainy days - Nayla
my band tee collection - Alekhya falling leaves - Claudia hot apple cider from the farmer's market - Grace

Credits

- * Compiled by Alex Owens BC '26
- * Designed by Nayla Delgado BC '24
- * Graphics by Suze Myers BC'16, Canva, & the Noun Project
- * Written & Published by Barnard Zine Library staff in New York, NY 2023

Sign up for our announcements list by emailing zines@barnard.edu!